Miss Helen Taft Returns to Bryn Mawr College.

WEDDING PARTY IS ARRIVING

Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young Entertains Company of Young People on Houseboat—Mrs. F. B. Moran Host at Luncheon at Chevy Chase Club. Rev. C. Ernest Smith Returns.

Miss Helen Taft, daughter of the President, who has spent a few days at the White House with her mother and aunt, returned yesterday afternoon to her school, Bryn Mawr College, at Philadelphia.

Lieut. Gen. S. B. M. Young, retired, entertained a company of young people on board a houseboat down the Potomac yesterday for his granddaughter, Miss Alice Margaret Knight. Among the grown-ups in the party were Maj. and Mrs. Zaleski and Capt. and Mrs. Hannay. They had a delightful sail, with luncheon aboard.

Miss Elena Calderon, daughter of the Bolivian Minister, entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of Miss Mercedes Godoy, who, with her parents, the Mexican Minister to Cuba, and Mme. Godoy, are visiting in Washington. Miss Godoy, being still confined to her room, as she has been ever since her arrival here, her cousin, Miss Lupita Canalis, who is her guest at the Shoreham, took her place as guest of honor. Señor Godoy and his family will leave here to-morrow for New York.

The former Mexican Ambassador to this country and Mme. Casaus and their daughters arrived here last evening in their private car from New York. They have spent the autumn at the Hot Springs in Virginia and a week in New York. They will spend some time at the New Willard. In addition to their daughters, they have their son, Dr. Casaus, with them. Although the Ambassador served here but a short time, he and his large family made many friends.

Col. Archibald Gracie and his daughter, Miss Gracie, returned to Washington last week by automobile from their summer home at Buena Vista Springs. They all spent a fortnight in and near New York in October.

Mrs. Irwin, wife of Commander William Manning Irwin, Miss Irwin, and Mrs. D. P. McCartney, who have been absent in New England all the summer, will return to their Washington home on Tuesday evening. Miss Irwin has been the guest for several weeks of Miss Katherine Weeks, daughter of Representative John W. Weeks, in their summer home at West Newton, Mass. Miss Irwin will join her mother in New York in time to return here with her.

Mr. Owen Scott and his two daughters, Misses Mary and Alice Scott, whose home in Connecticut avenue is leased to the Turkish Ambassador, are at the Richmond for the winter. They spent last season and the summer abroad.

Miss Dorothy Hayden, of New York, and Miss Molly Lynch, of Lakewood, N. J., are guests of Miss Helen Hibbs at the wedding party of Miss Fredericka Morgan and Mr. Evan Sinclair Cameron, who will be married Wednesday at noon in St. John's Church. The bridegroom's best man and ushers arrived in Washington last evening from New York. Mr. Cameron and his bride will leave for New York on Saturday evening. They are members of the college days, the Princeton Inn, at Princeton, N. J. Miss Marion Cameron, of Baltimore, sister of the bridegroom and maid of honor for the bride, will entertain the party at luncheon this afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club.

A ball for young people, which is of interest in Washington, was given by Col. and Mrs. Albert B. Hinton, of New York, Saturday evening in their summer home, at Hackensack, N. J., for their daughter, Miss Dorothy Carroll Trego, and her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Burwell Cutler, of Buffalo. Miss Trego is the daughter of the late Mr. Albert Trego, formerly of Baltimore. She is now in Washington, where her mother was Miss Kate Carroll, of Baltimore. Miss Trego was reared in Washington during her mother's widowhood.

Mrs. F. B. Moran entertained a company at luncheon yesterday at the Chevy Chase Club.

Mrs. Bates, widow of Gen. Alfred E. Bates, has returned to Washington and taken possession of the home of Rear Admiral and Mrs. William Sheffield Cowles, which Gen. Bates leased for the season last spring. Senator and Mrs. Depeue have a lease of the late Gen. Bates' house at 170 N street, which they have occupied for several years.

Rev. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas' Church, and his family have returned from their summer home, Whitehall, Aquasco, Md., and are in their winter home, 2019 N street.

Miss Inez M. Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. M. Howard, has as a week-end house party, Miss Bessie Russell Frank, Mr. George Russell, Mr. Charles O'Donnell, and Mr. C. Carroll Ware, of Baltimore, and the Misses Kurtz, of Georgetown.

Mrs. Kincaid, wife of Commander Thomas W. Kincaid, U. S. N., who has been the guest of friends in Georgetown, has returned to her home in Norfolk, Va.

The marriage of Miss Ida Lillian Offutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Offutt, to Mr. Bertrand Ewell Trenis will take place Wednesday, November 10, in the home of the bride's parents, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be followed by a reception. Rev. Dr. Pate, of the Dumbarton Avenue Church, will officiate. Miss Lucy Lee Offutt, sister of the bride, will be the maid of honor, and Miss Julia Trenis, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Effie Brooks will be bridesmaids. Mr. George Warren Offutt, Jr., will be best man, and the ushers will be Dr. George Stanford Barnes and Mr. Fred Plugg.

Miss Maria Calvo, daughter of the Costa Rican Minister, will be presented to society at a tea to be given by her mother in the legation, on December 11.

Mrs. Gore, wife of Senator Thomas P. Gore, and their little daughter have arrived in Washington from Oklahoma, and are with friends at 2019 Thirteenth street.

Mr. Charles E. Malpas, who has charge of the binding division at the Library of Congress, has gone to Indiana.

Miss Phoebe Eckels, daughter of the late Mr. James H. Eckels, who was formerly Comptroller of the Currency, and well known here, will be married to Mr. John Archibald Stevenson, of Chicago, on November 17, in the Fourth Presbyterian Church. The wedding will be simple, and the guests limited to a small

CHURCH HAS CELEBRATION.
North Carolina Avenue M. P. Congregation Observes Anniversary.

Questioning the work of churches respecting their religious duties to mankind, and explaining the function of religious organizations, Rev. Dr. Richard L. Shipley preached at the 8 o'clock service in the North Carolina Avenue Methodist Protestant Church last night. The service commemorated the thirty-seventh anniversary of the founding of the church.

"There is a marked change in the position of the church of to-day from what it was yesterday," began Dr. Shipley. "A new life has entered its work. In ancient times the church was not only a place of worship, but also a bank, a market, and a political organization."

Special music was sung by the choir, led by C. V. Schofield. A quartet, composed of Misses Ada M. Filer and Myrtle Schofield, and Edgar A. Cairness and R. I. Garber also sang.

North Carolina Avenue Methodist Protestant Church was founded in 1872, at Ninth and B streets southeast. In 1888 the present stone structure was completed on the same site, Rev. Dr. A. Norman Ward, of Seattle, Wash., being the pastor.

Recently a large amount of money has been spent on the church in the nature of carpeting and frescoing.

DIES IN FIANCEE'S ARMS.

Consumptive Expires on Train While Being Rushed Home.

Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 31.—Robert Cherry, a wealthy resident of Newark, N. J., who had been to California with his fiancée, Miss Alice Robertson, of New York, died of consumption while being rushed home on a train.

A few days ago, when it became known that Mr. Robertson could not recover, he expressed a desire to spend his remaining days at his home in Newark, and although the fastest trains were taken, death overtook him on the way. The body was prepared for burial here and sent to Newark. Cherry was forty-four years of age.
